At a rally in Minna, Atiku claimed 10m jobs have been lost since Buhari became president. False. Even from the latest unemployment figure from the National Bureau of Statistics, of the 20.9 million people classified as unemployed, 8.77m of them are first-time job seekers therefore not part of the job loss count. Also, of the 20.9m, only 3.1m have been unemployed for three years or above. Why the lies?
