

NGOs Congratulate the Buhari Administration for the Federal Ministry of Health's unquestionable Commitment to Saving Women's Lives

Honourable Minister of Health, Dr Osagie Ehanire with high level dignitaries at the launching of "Family Planning For A More Productive Nigeria" Document on 10th December 2021 at the FP2020 Conference held in Abuja Nigeria.

© 2021 development Research & Projects Centre, dRPC-PACFaH@Scale project

RECENT FP COMMITMENTS OF THE FEDERAL MINISTRY OF HEALTH

1. The National Family Planning Blueprint 2021-2025 has been launched in October 2020
2. The Federal Government of Nigeria committed to FP2030
3. The Federal Ministry of Health, in collaboration with Marie Stopes Nigeria, called on Traditional Leaders to increase demand for FP in a meeting on 29th November 2021
4. The Federal Ministry of Health in collaboration with Rotary Nigeria affirm its commitment to FP on 30th November 2021
5. The new National Development Plan 2021-2025 makes 8 references to the importance of FP, linking FP to development and women's Health

Family Planning saves women's lives and allows for healthy timing between pregnancies

With all these commitments, CSOs ask where will the money come from?

There is no line item for FP in the 2022 proposed budget of the Federal Ministry of Health

